Expelled from student fraternity "Lettonia" because of collaboration with communists in 1941. Believed to be an informer to the NKVD. Traced people during the deportation time June 1941. Known as ambassador. (a)

PORMANIS Viktors, born about 1913, attended 2nd Riga town gymnasium from about 1932 to 1937. There were rumors in 1941, after the retreat of the Red Army from Latvia, that V.P. was an informer of NKVD and that due to his activity several members of "Lettonia" were arrested and deported.

Add info could be obtained from:

Bruno LUTS - 124 Rodfield Pl., Syracuse 10, N.Y. (member of "Lettonia");

Janis PORMANIS - Kaiserslautern, Germany (member of "Lettonia"; now chairman of the Latvian Central Council in Germany). (C) NOV 1954

According to the info of LAUBERTS Aleksandrs, employee of the VOA, Latvian desk, who knows the family of V.P. from the time in Latvia, the first name of V.P. was formerly not Viktors or Victor but Vitolds. As far as A.Lauberts knows, V.P. had worked for the NKVD in 1940/41, then arrested by the SD but soon set free to work for the SD. A.Lauberts admits that now V.P. might be working for the FBI. A.Lauberts knows also the brother of V.P. and stated that some relatives of V.P. were deported by the Soviets during 1940/41. (C).

About the activity at the NKVD of V.Pormanis kuz in 1940/41 knows also his schoolmate, VITOLS Janis - 3223 North Twentieth St., Arlington, Va. (C).

a letter to Editor
V.P. put ~~xxxx~~ in LAIKS which indicates that he is a representative of the King Herritt & Co, Inc. in Dec., 1954 and as such has made a contribution for needy Latvians in West Germany. (C).
